Secretary Wilson Will Resign to Become President of an Iowa College.

BY DIRECTIVE TO THE TIMES: ST. LOUIS, Sept. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The great Lincoln Copper Mining Company, controlling one of the largest mining properties in Arizona, has been sold to a syndicate of Chicago and Cleveland capitalists, Rockefeller being largely represented. The value of the stock and property rights is placed at $6,000,000.

The deal was conducted by Henry G. Offenbacher and Judge Thomas R. Harvey, vice-president of the company, both of this city. The price at which the property has been sold has not been made public.

young woman was thought to be a tough, and Hawkins who also succeeded in convincing himself that the shooting is under arrest. Hawkins, who is 40 years old, and is living with his wife and family in Fort Schuyler road, in Colchester, was employed on the Huntington estate as pond gardener for twelve years, and has always borne a good reputation. In his young years ago Little Connell, 25 years old and a brunette of strikingly good looks, was a favorite with the Huntingtons, and in the household as second cook, or kitchen maid, and after a time became the object of persistent attention on the part of Hawkins. Just when the second was about to give up the idea, and upon the scene could not be ascertained, but he soon excited Hawkins's passion, and determined to end the matter, the latter secretly took the girl to his home, and confined her in the kitchen in the basement. Mrs. Huntington's summer home, shot her four times.

MADRID, Sept. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] King Alfonso persists in his determination to marry no one but an American heiress. Princesses of Europe's royal houses are mentioned to him in vain. Last night, in the course of a royal reception to the court at San Sebastian, the impetuous young monarch was heard to say: "Why should I not have an American wife? Everyone assures me the Americans are the most beautiful, as well as the richest ladies in the world."

It is said that when the Queen mother heard these words she glared at her son, and requested him to be silent.

yesterday when she learned that her identity was known.

"But I've just got to go on the stage," she insisted. "Ever since I was a little girl and played in children's mock theatricals I've had the ambition. Why, once I was pretending to be our big dog and I actually jumped into the river as I had seen him do when he saved a child from drowning. Luckily, the dog I was imitating was there. He saved me."

"You think this is rash? Oh, no. I must have money, for my relatives won't help me. Why, when I subbed one night in the St. Anne Company father suppressed all mention of it in the papers. And I did need the money, at once, too. You wouldn't believe how much I made. Four dollars."

"I really did. One man bought the papers. He tried to look through my file. He said I was too pretty to sell papers. Then I got frightened. And what do you think I did? I called a cab and rode away. Isn't that funny? Trying to economize, and then doing that, so incongruous, too."

"I only sold papers for a half-hour. And only about a hundred. But people wouldn't take the change always. It says better than going into a store, doesn't it?"

"Say, this being independent is an awful good school, don't you think so? But I'm going to make my name famous. That is, not my name exactly, but my stage one. I chose Elizabeth Tiercier."

About this time the summer girl began to sort over her engagements to ascertain if she has one that will survive the first frost.—Washington Post.

DISAPPEARANCE OF ROBERT JAMES BATTY.

Robert James Batty disappeared from his home in Canby, Ore., at 6 o'clock Monday morning, August 21. When last seen he was carrying a box painted slate color and a gas camera. He wore a blue serge suit, short trousers, and a matching cap, with a red ornament in front. The boy is about 14 years old, has dark hazel eyes, dark hair, is about 5 feet 1 inch tall and weighs about 97 pounds. On the right side of his neck, is a white spot an inch or in length.

He is the son of Geo. S. Batty, general manager of Street's Western Saddle Car Line, Chicago, Ill., formerly of Portland, Ore. Information addressed to Canby, Ore., or Santa Barbara Cal., will be thankfully received. The family will reside at the latter place for winter, having taken quarters there from December 1st.

Our New "Old" Furniture.

The Very Newest Furniture is the Old Furniture.

The ideas of refined and cultured people have reached a point where they recognize and appreciate the simple strength and beauty of the Colonial Designs in Furniture—the idea of reviving the old colonial patterns is also endeared to every true American by the associations which are also stirred up at the sight of a chair or a table or a clock such as graced the house of Dolly Madison, or a desk like the one at which Washington worked.

One of the most thoroughly 20th-century and up-to-date furniture factories in the world is devoted entirely to the manufacture of just such pieces of furniture and

No One Else Shows It.

We are the sole handlers of these exquisite reproductions, hereabouts, and are now showing some of the first shipments. This furniture is especially adapted to dining rooms and libraries, and you will find complete lines; also numerous designs in chairs, some of them with the old fashioned rush seats, some with leather seats, others with natural wood seats.

The showing of this line of furniture is somewhat in the nature of an Art Furniture Exhibit, and you are especially invited to come and see it.

VETS ACTIVE ON STORIES.

Tale-telling Times in Camp McKinley.

Three Tracks Clear for Reminiscences.

Past Commander Kanouse Touches Button and Starts Lively Discussion.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES. CAMP WILLIAM MCKINLEY (Long Beach) Sept. 3.—Story-telling is the veterans' chief occupation in camp.

There is much cooking and eating and sleeping and dress parading and public entertaining. It is true, but the stories are the main part of the tented town affairs.

Tales of the front and rear, reminiscences of those who went campaigning with Grant, accounts of those who marched with Sherman, stirring pictures of Sheridan and Winchester by veterans who were there.

Reminiscences of "Yanks" and "Johnnies" and vivid portrayals of the watermelon and the chicken-roast and the mysterious production of food for the hungry, have three tracks of the right way.

The South Coast is reserved for the quartermaster's mule trains and for ammunition on the way to the front.

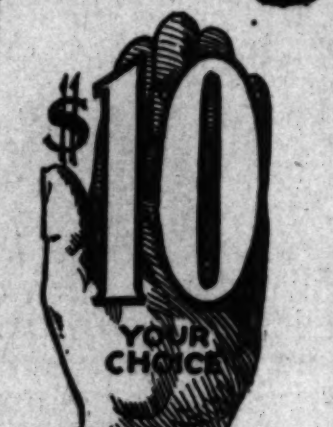

There is abundant inspiration for the stories. The Sons of Veterans' field gun, sitting like a powerful magnet, draws a half dozen of the boys of the gun. There are a few words of practice, it set up to date, criticism of the way the gun is mounted; one of the veterans rests a foot well up on the muzzle, braces himself on the side, grips himself with cane and the group knows there is a good story coming.

He of the up-country post commands a dispensary, hospitality with him, and the baked discs tap a fund of reminiscences of the creeping crawlers and to have existed in the old days. When the Sons of Veterans meet the guard, their sires stand about in interested groups and soon they are deeply absorbed in some unvarnished bits of military history.

The number of people in camp was considerably augmented today. The work of preparing the various quarters for the states and the posts and corps is about completed, and the camp is presently on a settled basis.

STORY-TELLING. The attendance at the exercises this evening was so large as to fill nearly all the seats of the big tent. Several of the veterans army nurses were recalled to seats on the rostrum.

Silk Striped Challie.

For early fall costumes the challie is decidedly most appropriate and popular. It is a medium weight fabric of wool and cotton and is as serviceable as the silk and wool fabric of the same name. We are showing it in various shades and printed designs. Former price 35c the yd. Reduced to 25c.

Cotton Foulard.

The cotton foulard is one of the most surprising novelties of a printed fabric. The soft, pliable nature of the satin and the fine silky finish that is as durable as the cloth itself brings it into close harmony with the silk creation that is far more costly. Former price 50c the yard. Reduced to 25c.

Exciting Finish of Education

Winifred Beckingsale Prize—"Pride of Bessie Be"

Hails off to the "Orange Blossom City" of Ontario. She is the winner of the grand capital prize in the second year free scholarship contest. The case between her and the "Pride of the Pantlands" was no close that almost the last coupon had to be counted before the result could be determined. The count which began at 12 o'clock Monday night was not completed until late hour last night, the late to admit of an extensive review of the score this issue of The Times. The girls themselves will tell the story.

By accumulating the immense total of 15,980 "points" Miss Winifred Beckingsale has won not only the first place of the scholarships offered by the Times in the leading educational institutions of Southern California, but cash premium of $100 besides.

Bessie Price, Bessie Beatty, Gertrude Smith and Florence Darch have won second, third, fourth and fifth choices, respectively, and $100 each each.

Frank Cummings, Jr., Egbert Edwards, Elsie Anderson and Gladys Edmunds have earned sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth choice, respectively, and $50 cash.

By reason of the contestants, as far down the list as No. 23, at least, will get a scholarship, each. If the necessary arrangements can be made in the next few days the list of scholarships will be increased so as to reward several more of the faithful workers.

Analizing the false position in which were placed by a few rowing leaders at their trade, the striking men formerly employed by Parton & Alford of this city, last night took of a uniform rate of 35 cents will return to be followed by the rest, as this crew is by far the largest employed in town. The men been out two days.

The strike was instigated by itinerant men, Ariz., and on August 19 notice served on the founders that a new rate of an hour and time and a half for nine hours would be enforced September 1.

Various foundry managers got together and decided they could not stand the demand. Their contracts books for thirty, sixty and ninety concerns and the price at which work was taken, forbade the extra-ordinary for by the employees. The managers decided to get along without strikers for a time, even tho' the

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Fire Commission yesterday permanently suspended Capt. John Roeder from the department, thus approving the action of Chief Strohm in relieving the fireman from duty for his alleged inability to maintain discipline in his company.

Vital statistics for the month of August indicate an annual mortality rate of 14.8.

The United States Telephone and Telegraph Company filed articles of incorporation yesterday.

A Southern Pacific Railroad employee was sent to the asylum yesterday with a serious delusion.

FINAL SUSPENSION OF CAPT. JOHN ROEDER.

FIRE COMMISSION APPROVES ACT OF CHIEF STROHM.

Preferred Dismissal to Temporary Position in Rank—End of the "Water Cure" Scandal of Engine Company No. 21—Vital Statistics.

Permanent suspension from the fire department was ordered yesterday by the Fire Commission in the case of Capt. John Roeder of Engine Company No. 21. The vote of the commissioners present was unanimous.

Franklin, Vickers and Kuhnle all voting for suspension. Roeder was in the room and heard the verdict, but made no attempt to change the views of the commissioners or to make his fall less hard.

Roeder was suspended several weeks ago by Chief Strohm, who charged the captain with failure to enforce discipline among the members of his company, and with other faults of a more or less serious nature, among them being the administration of the "water cure" to certain firemen.

After a two days' trial before the commission, Roeder remained under suspension, refusing, it is said, to accept the terms offered him by which he could have resumed work as a first lieutenant, with little reduction in salary and with a probability of being restored to his former rank within a few months.

Roeder was obstinate and insisted on retaining his rank or leaving the department.

Commissioner Franklin, in speaking of the case after adjournment yesterday, said:

"The public should understand that Capt. Roeder was given a fair trial on the charges preferred by Chief Strohm, and that the commission thought it best for the good of the service to reduce him in rank to the first lieutenant."

It was thought this would act as a corrective, and that would be a good example for other members of the department. It was the intention to later give Roeder choice of an engine-house that he could handle. Although the reduction in rank would cause but a small reduction in salary, Roeder would not accept it, and there was nothing for the commission to do but order his permanent suspension."

In the absence of Acting Mayor Powers, Commissioner Webb occupied the chair. Favorable action was taken on the following resolutions: Pioneer Boiler and Machine Works, to install twenty-five-horse-power boiler at Caroline and Palmetto streets; A. C. Dixon, gasoline engine and boiler, North Main street; Peerless Dye Works, four-horse-power boiler at No. 185 North Main street; Peerless Dye Works, Standard Carriage Works to erect a six-horse-power gasoline engine at No. 712 West Third street was laid over for one week.

Twelve fire alarms during the week ending September 3 was the substance of the report of Chief Strohm. There were three false, three were for grass fires, and the total loss sustained in the remaining six fires was $72.

Chief Strohm was authorized to build an extension to the bay barn at the corporation yard for the accommodation of a large quantity of hay that soon will be purchased.

Action on the salary question was deferred for another week.

Only a small portion of the fruit and vegetables was destroyed, the inspector having no means of disposing of the stuff, but it is expected that the new garbage contract will provide a satisfactory method of disposal.

This one is the United States Long Distance Telephone and Telegraph Company. It is incorporated with $2,000,000 stock, of which $70,000 has been subscribed.

It is going to spread telephone and telegraph wires all over Southern California, to specify where the backers are: Los Angeles to Redlands, also San Bernardino; also from Los Angeles to San Bernardino; also from Los Angeles to San Bernardino; also from Los Angeles to San Bernardino.

The estimated length of lines is 700 miles.

In addition to this, the company proposes to do a general district messenger and burglar-alarm business.

It is admitted that these are not the "red hatters" Mr. Gates, when seen by a Times reporter yesterday, stated that these directors are local representatives of certain capitalists. He declined to specify where the backers had from, or what their plans are.

REAL ESTATE GIANT ASSAULTS AN INVALID.

ILLINOISIAN'S WARM RECEPTION IN ANGEL CITY.

Here's a Man Who Can Whip a Woman—Penal Bail Burglars Held for Trial—Capt. Roeder's Assaults Men Hearing Postponed.

L. W. Stanley, a real estate agent of ponderous frame, answered in the Police Court yesterday to a charge of battery, preferred by E. A. McLaughlin, a recent arrival from La Balle, Ill.

McLaughlin, who could almost hide himself in Stanley's coat pocket, was thrown into the company of men with whom Stanley has had previous trouble, and innocently became heir to the wrath of the big real estate agent. On Monday evening the two men met on Spring street, and Stanley made a jump at McLaughlin, saying:

"You Illinois sucker, I'll teach you to come here and interfere with my business."

With this, he struck the man twice in the face, accompanied the act with vile epithets. Even if McLaughlin had not been an invalid, he would have had no chance with his big antagonist.

Just as the judge heard the evidence and imposed a fine of $10 upon Stanley.

It is but a little while since John Miller and Stella Hathaway were in the Police Court for engaging in a drunken brawl, and the woman refused to testify against him, for having cut her clothing into shreds.

They pose as man and wife, just in a kind of way, but they are not. Yesterday they were both again in the same court, but Miller was in the dock and the woman was the principal witness against him. She has a wherry contused eye and a badly cut head, and witnesses testified that Miller had knocked her down in a saloon on First street, and abused her in a brutal manner.

He will hear the judgment of the court this morning.

A Dollar's Worth of Fun.

Boys who find amusement in shooting about the city streets will find a dollar's worth of fun in the case of Albert Roberts, who lives at No. 314 West Ninth street.

He was amusing himself by shooting through a tin can, on Ninth street, between Olive and Hill, when he was surprised by an officer. He was only required to pay a fine of $1, but he was warned of more serious consequences in case he repeated the offense.

Three Young Thieves.

James J. Cady, O. L. Mooney and William Hopkins, the last named appearing to be the leader of the gang, were held for the Superior Court yesterday for the burglary of a jewelry store.

On the night of August 25 they went through a couple of rooms in the Pasadena hotel, and stole a watch, a pair of shoes, a hat, a necktie, a clock and a number of other articles.

Numerous things, which have not been named, were found among their effects.

In default of $300 bail, each of the three was held in the "Black Maria" on their way to the County Jail.

Police Court Briefs.

T. F. Walsh, a blind man, who stands on the street and galls nickles from sympathetic people, was pulled for drunkenness on Tuesday night when he came before the court.

Austin, owing to his being blind, the court let him off with some healthy advice, with reference to a man in his room who was generally regarded as a peace-loving fellow.

Nelson Thomas, who made himself too numerous and equally obnoxious about the office of the Diamond Card Company, was held for the police court.

He was held for the police court for disturbing the peace.

John Walsh was hauled out from the rear of the Original Mug saloon, on Main street, for disturbing the peace.

He told the court that he came to town to take part in the election, but he was still here.

On invitation of Justice Austin, he will remain a few days longer, where he can be of some use to the community.

Martin Maloney, the man arrested in Chinatown with a diamond pin and signs with colors of the rainbow, was held for the police court.

He was held for the police court for disturbing the peace.

The District Attorney instructed the Board of Supervisors that Roemer's resignation had been presented in due time and was to be accepted.

Prohibition people who protested against the acceptance of the resignation did not appear.

A. Witherspoon was appointed in his place.

HARTMAN'S MONEY.

Clement McHenry has applied for letters of administration in the estates of Joseph and Mary Hartman, the brother and sister who were slain in the explosion of the metal industry. With a plan of less than $7,000,000 in cash value, it dominates the entire mining industry of the State and pays a dividend of 1 per cent. annually on its stock of $10,000,000.

SMELTING TRUST.

Colorado's Attorney-General says its Annual Dividend is Almost Equal to Entire Value of the Plant.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. DENVER (Colo.), Sept. 3.—Attorney-General Post has filed in the State Supreme Court a reply to the brief of the American Smelting and Refining Company, in the suit brought by him on behalf of the State for the purpose of dissolving the smelter combination.

The points discussed are whether or not there is injury to justify the action, and whether suit can be brought in the Supreme Court.

The Attorney-General's brief contains the following statements:

"A corporation organized for the purpose of creating a monopoly is organized for an unlawful purpose and should be dissolved."

"This corporation has been in existence only three years, yet it has no competition in the State and is a monopoly in the control of every branch of the metal industry. With a plan of less than $7,000,000 in cash value, it dominates the entire mining industry of the State and pays a dividend of 1 per cent. annually on its stock of $10,000,000."

TAX RATE UNCHANGED IN SAN BERNARDINO.

ASSESSMENT OF RAILROADS TO BE INCREASED.

Extra Funds Will Make Possible Special Works Without Cost to Citizens—Fight Against New Telephone Company's Franchise.

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 11.—The Supervisors today fixed the tax rate for the coming year at $3 on each $100 valuation for all districts outside the incorporated cities. This is the same rate that has prevailed, and the increase in the railroad assessment by the State Board of Equalization will make it possible for the county to raise a considerable sum of money for special purposes that are urgent, without putting additional burdens on the taxpayers.

TELEPHONE FIGHT.

Judge J. L. Campbell, representing the Sunset Telephone Company, appeared before the City Board of Trustees last evening to ask for a franchise to lay a new cable company, and asking the board to rescind its former action, which, if the new company keeps faith, will admit of telephone competition in the city.

Judge Campbell stated that the board, although the new company had verbally admitted the right of the trustees to order wire placed underground at any time, no such provision had been incorporated in the proposed franchise. He argued that the franchise is not what the board intended it to be, and that in fairness to the Sunset company, the competing company should be placed under the same limitations as was the older corporation.

When it came to a vote on the question, there was a deadlock. Trustees Hanford, president of the board, and James, vice president, and the Democratic State Convention. Trustees Wilson and Riley voted to rescind the former action of the board, and Trustees West and Riley voted to grant the franchise.

SAN BERNARDINO REVEALED.

Prof. Bailey of the State Mining Bureau, yesterday submitted a proposal to the Supervisors, for a thirty-page illustrated volume on the geology of San Bernardino County, with an estimated cost of $100, all for the use of the county.

The volume, which is a masterpiece of the county afterward, should they be desired. Action in the matter was deferred.

Calvin E. Knapp of Randsburg, and Mrs. Jessie Shallenberger of this city were married last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. H. Knapp, on North D street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mark B. Shaw, in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives. The bride, Miss Knapp, left today for Coronado for a week's stay.

Mrs. and Mr. P. A. Palmer were tendered a surprise party Monday evening at their home on North Ninth street, on the occasion of Mrs. Palmer's birthday.

Two boys were taken into custody yesterday at Urbila Springs for starting a grass fire in the rear of the South-house, which endangered some of the outbuildings.

A fire started in Devil Cañon this morning, and the rangers of the San Bernardino reservation have been busily engaged in fighting it.

Fred Davis was painfully injured last night while riding his bicycle. He collided with a buggy driven in the dark.

Mrs. C. H. Rhodes has returned from a visit of several months with relatives in Toronto, Canada.

Mrs. O. A. Leibel, son and daughter, left today for Bakersfield, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. A. G. Kendall and the Misses Kendall are at Terminal Island for a month's stay.

Mrs. and Mr. Albert Funnell are enjoying an outing at Los Angeles and coast resorts.

Mrs. and Mr. D. H. Bruck are in Los Angeles for a stay of several weeks.

SAN PEDRO DRANK DEER BY THE UNIONISTS.

ENORMOUS CONSUMPTION OF LIQUOR ON LABOR DAY.

Fully Two Hundred and Fifty Barrels of Beer and Indefinite Quantity of Stronger Brands of Firewater Swallowed by Celebrants—Increased Lumber Shipments.

SAN PEDRO, Sept. 3.—The festivity on Labor Day shows that San Pedro has been enriched and dried up by the visit of the forces of unionism. Two days have elapsed since the celebration, and San Pedro now is as dry as dog food, and there were no saloons left, the crowds that filled to overflowing the bar-rooms from early morning until midnight and after, September 1, have vanished, leaving behind a desolate appearance.

Everybody made money, hand-over-fist, regardless of occupations. The saloons were turned into mints, where the booze was fairly culmed in dollar lots by the thousands of dollars worth of these joints are now complimenting themselves on their heavy hauls.

It is estimated that there were not less than 250 barrels of beer consumed in San Pedro on Labor day, and accounts the total number of glasses disposed of at 160,000, figuring 500 glasses to the barrel. At this rate, the profits of the saloon men are enormous. Beer was sold at the rate of $1.00 per barrel, and sells at 5 cents a glass straight through, which leaves a marginal profit of from $14 to $28, a total profit on the 250 barrels of about $7,000, or an amount of $28,000, if the average is taken. Reckoning at the rate of 2000 drinks there were every one of them drunk, the astonishing figure of seventy glasses is reached for each individual. The liquor expenditure of $3.95 apiece for beer.

The above figures may shock the temperance folk, but, nevertheless, they are correct.

That there can be amounts of other drinks sold, no one knows. It is possible to the saloon men themselves. Beer was the only drink sold at the rate of 5 cents, all others commanding 10 cents.

It is safe to say that several thousand dollars' worth of whiskey, wine, cocktails, pop, lemonade, etc., Some people are of the opinion that even more money was expended for these drinks than on beer.

That there can be no mistake in the above figures relative to the beer sale is plainly seen from the fact that two carloads of the amber fluid arrived the night prior to the celebration, each containing about twenty-eight barrels. There is no telling how much beer was consumed at that time, though the liquor dealers say at least one carload was held over from the week before. Already the Southern Pacific Company has shipped another carload of beer, while there are still more than that number at the station awaiting shipment.

If it is generally admitted that the celebration did more to injure San Pedro than anything else. Even the unionists realize this fact, and assert that hundreds of the visitors merely came over with the deliberate intention of indulging in an unlimited drunk.

LUMBER SHIPMENTS GROW.

The statistics for the month of August as furnished by the customs-office shows that there were over 11,000,000 more feet of lumber received at this port last month than during the same period of time a year ago. The value of the shipments was $4,331,700 against $1,470,000. A large gain is noted in the single trade also, there being 3,785,000 feet compared with 1,511,000 for August, 1901. Stakes show a large increase. For the past month the portion received amounted to 290,000 cubic feet, whereas only 42,700. Laths and ties were well supplied, the former reaching 696,000, and the latter 95,583. There were no receipts of battens and ties in August, 1901. Piles were not so good, showing slight decrease over last year. The figures for piles amounted to 33 for last month, against 125 for last year, and none came in freely. Receipts were larger than last year by nearly 11,000. The number of posts received were nearly 1000. The net tonnage of vessels for last month was 31,401, as compared with 12,332 for the same month last year.
